- Crowds continue to be in a good mood, with officers addressing areas where necessary
- Approx. 100 people currently on Parliament Hill and approx. 200 people on Wellington Street
- The status of the interprovincial bridges is as follows:
 - Macdonald-Cartier bridge is open but reduced to 2 lanes in each direction
 - Alexandra bridge remains closed
 - Portage bridge remains closed
 - Chaudière bridge is closed in both directions
 - Champlain bridge remains open but is heavily congested
 - First responders will need to cross from Gatineau into Ottawa using the MacDonald-Cartier or the Champlain bridges only
- OC Transpo and STO have finalized a plan for commuters travelling between Gatineau and Ottawa. Please refer to their social media for details and updates.
- The PLT teams continue to work with demonstration participants to move them out of the City, if they are amenable

Good morning. Here is the first update on the convoy demonstration for January 30th. Updates will come periodically throughout the day.

- Individual actions overnight resulted in broken windows to a City of Ottawa heavy vehicle and the paramedics displaced within the downtown core for their safety
- Police resources will be re-deployed so as to maintain public safety
- The Alexandria and Portage bridges are closed coming in to the City
- Currently there are very few people on Parliament Hill but foot traffic in front of Wellington is picking up again
- Planned activities on Parliament Hill today that we are aware of include:
 - Religious service at 10:00
 - Maxime Bernier at 12:00
